

LIBERTY

THE QUALITY OR STATE OF BEING FREE.

Liberty is freedom to choose not freedom from accountability.

Liberty removes consequences from the choosing not from the choice.

Liberty demands responsibility.

Even in LIBERTY there are boundaries.

Liberty's boundaries are morality based.

Liberty requires reasonable law.

Reasonable law requires moral legislation

Without morality there is no liberty.

God's Word is the perfect "law of liberty" and sets the boundaries for the Believer.

The Christian's liberty, though enjoyed, is not exempt from sacrifice for the purpose of another's benefit. (Phil. 2:2-8)

Sacrifice is the currency of liberty.

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." Gal 5:1

"...the boundlessness of God's life. This is liberty, this is prosperity. The more we lose, the more we gain."

Watchman Nee

"God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it."

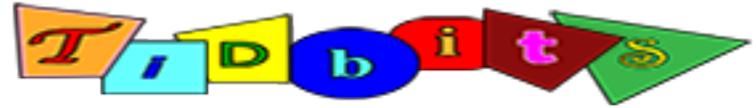

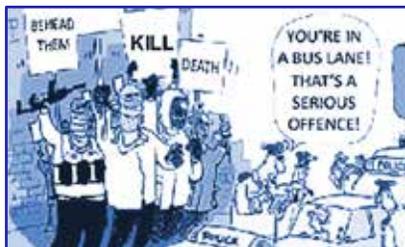

Daniel Webster

"But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

James 1:25

Teaching the Responsibilities of Liberty

1. Allow your children to make age appropriate choices.
2. Define their appropriate boundaries and responsibilities and give them freedom therein.
3. Don't shield your child from the consequences of poor choices. (wisdom gained)
4. A child's boundary does not limit a parent's discretion in a matter. (That's parental liberty)
5. Don't make your parental responsibility a child's choice or you will give away parental authority.
6. Acknowledge a child's sacrifice of liberties, but don't reward it immediately otherwise it will skew the purpose.
7. Learn and teach to say "Thank You."

LIBERTY

THE QUALITY OR STATE OF BEING FREE.

Liberty is freedom to choose not freedom from accountability.

Liberty removes consequences from the choosing not from the choice.

Liberty demands responsibility.

Even in LIBERTY there are boundaries.

Liberty's boundaries are morality based.

Liberty requires reasonable law.

Reasonable law requires moral legislation

Without morality there is no liberty.

God's Word is the perfect "law of liberty" and sets the boundaries for the Believer.

The Christian's liberty, though enjoyed, is not exempt from sacrifice for the purpose of another's benefit. (Phil. 2:2-8)

Sacrifice is the currency of liberty.

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." Gal 5:1

"...the boundlessness of God's life. This is liberty, this is prosperity. The more we lose, the more we gain."

Watchman Nee

"God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it."

Daniel Webster

"But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

James 1:25

Teaching the Responsibilities of Liberty

1. Allow your children to make age appropriate choices.
2. Define their appropriate boundaries and responsibilities and give them freedom therein.
3. Don't shield your child from the consequences of poor choices. (wisdom gained)
4. A child's boundary does not limit a parent's discretion in a matter. (That's parental liberty)
5. Don't make your parental responsibility a child's choice or you will give away parental authority.
6. Acknowledge a child's sacrifice of liberties, but don't reward it immediately otherwise it will skew the purpose.
7. Learn and teach to say "Thank You."

