

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness." Genesis 1:3-4 KJV

What God decrees to be, becomes. What God says is so and “it is good.” In the very beginning light was, because God decreed it. He divided light from darkness and no one will ever be able to join them. Darkness is absence of light, just as cold is absence of heat. Where light is, darkness is not, and it will ever be so, because God decreed it thus. A point of absolute zero is declared, but if it can be measured, it is not completely devoid of heat. There is a point, beyond which, they can measure no further. It is simply a mathematical reference point for equations involving temperature. God said in through Solomon’s pen, “I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.” They never will, but they keep spending billions of dollars building accelerators and digging deep earth chambers trying to capture knowledge about the tiniest particles of God’s creation, but to date have discovered only that they have just as little understanding as when they began. What they do try to recreate, falls pitifully short of God’s original! Look at atomic energy and GMO food! I won’t even begin to discuss medicine! X-rays are so good for you that the technicians wear lead aprons or stand behind a screen while they do it. They can’t even create the nuclear fusion that causes our sun to burn, even though they claim to know how the process works. They use words like “perhaps” and “if” quite a lot when describing their efforts and theories. Trying to reverse engineer creation is like trying to remove wet from water. When will the godless ever learn that as long as they oppose Truth they are destined to fail? They base their calculations on the absolutes of Truth, but then chase the shadows of human reason and theory into horrendous heresy! Be not dismayed when those with worldly credentials and titles seem to be wiser than you. If they deny Truth, they are fools of the first order. To know God is to know wisdom. To fear God is the beginning of being wise, because “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.” To put it plainly, if you do not fear or acknowledge God, you are an ignorant fool. “The fool hath said in his heart, “There is no God!” Notice it’s a thought not a declaration; “in his heart.” God has decreed believers, His own; by Grace through faith. “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one.” It is so. It is good.

What God doth say becomes just so,
And there’ll never be a man that knows,
The total works that God hath done,
Inspired by Him under the sun. ~CGP

Relax! God’s Omnipotent Word still completely controls every sub-atomic particle and photon of His creation with the same power that ordained their function in the beginning. His Word never has nor ever will fail in its prescribed mission. You can start worrying when the sun fails to rise or the earth stops spinning!

"So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11 KJV
