

"And the LORD Heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD Said unto me, 'I Have Heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken. O that there were such an heart in them, that they would Fear Me, and keep all My Commandments always, That It Might Be Well With Them, and with their children for ever!" Deuteronomy 5:28-29 KJV

In the sea of chaos in which we live, God and His Word Are Immutable: An Immovable Anchor And A Safe Harbor for all battered ships tossed to and fro in the storms of evil that are sure to increase as time progresses. Are you concerned for your children and your future? Keep God's Commandments and teach your children to do so as well. His Commands Are His Blessings, not His Provision. They Keep us on the Path that brings us to the Provision He Already Has In Store For us. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness and ALL THESE THINGS shall be added unto you." He Left us A New Commandment: "Love one another as I Have Loved you." Satan's primary task is to disrupt the Assembly, and he has no better tool than "discord among the brethren." If he can keep believers separated through petty strife and personal conflicts he can squelch the Holy Spirit's Voice of Truth That Is An Unstoppable Force against sin and evil. "By this shall all men know that ye Are My Disciples, if ye have Love one to another." We Are Told to "love one another" and "preach the Gospel" in that order. That order is no coincidence. Without love for each other, believers are no different than the rest of the greedy scrabbling agendas that surround them. Christ Love Is Sacrificial Love. Love Gave His Life Willingly For our sakes. Why do we say we "love" one another when we are not even willing to be inconvenienced? If we yield to the Spirit through faithful obedience, sacrificial love for our brethren will blossom and we will find a Peace And Joy that "passeth all understanding." If we don't love the "Body of Christ," the Assembly of believers, then we don't love Christ. It's one or the other. We either Love God or we don't. All else is a lie. "If a man say, 'I love God,' and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God Whom he hath not seen?" Let me interject: Only those "Born of the Spirit" are "brothers" in Christ. All men are not my "brothers!" Fellowship around the Word of God instead of the latest sports event or fishing trip will unite us for "where the Spirit of the Lord Is, There Is Liberty." It's about God and His Word, not our latest recipe or who's dating who, that will knit our hearts together. If the topic is "too spiritual" for you, you need to get right with God! If the Word of God is not our focus and topic, then we are no better than a Moose Lodge! God is our Life and our being, not just an accessory we wear once or twice a week to "the Club." Many believers are too concerned about offending with their Faith. True Faith might just offend a soul right into Heaven or strengthen another's Faith!

Love your God with all that's you,
To His Word stay wholly true,
All He says obey and do,
And He will truly care for you. –CGP

Fellow believers may annoy when Satan's imps whisper all their shortcomings into your ear – like you're perfect! We're supposed to dwell on the virtue and praise of "good reports," not the negative. Look for Christ in your fellow believers. Jesus said, "If ye love ME.....keep My Commandments. Without ME.....ye can do nothing!"

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; IF THERE BE any VIRTUE, and IF THERE BE any PRAISE, think on these things." Philippians 4:8 KJV
