

"But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven: A land which the LORD thy God Careth for: the Eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, From The Beginning Of The Year Even Unto The End Of The Year."
Deuteronomy 11:11-12 KJV

There are times we delude ourselves into thinking God doesn't know or care that we suffer, but nothing is further from the Truth! "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which Made heaven and earth. He will not Suffer thy foot to be moved: He that keepeth thee will not slumber." What we perceive all has to do with where we allow our thoughts to go. First, we must determine if our circumstances are of our own doing and if so, through faith repent and return to obedience. Nothing escapes the prevue of Eternity's Sovereign. "The Eyes of the LORD are upon the Righteous, and His Ears are open unto their cry. For the ways of man are before the Eyes of the LORD, and He Pondereth ALL his goings. The Eyes of the LORD are in every place, Beholding the evil and the good." God's Word is His Blessing and it will keep us in the Right Path where provision awaits the obedient. If trouble comes your way and God does not reveal the reason, you may always trust that it is for His Glory and your edification. We may need to help another through similar trials and God teaches us that we may teach another or that our faith may increase. "Reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the Glory which shall be revealed in us. Casting all your care upon Him for He Careth for you." There is no place in space or time where God is not! He has already surveyed your coming year; just trust and obey His Word.

The Eyes of God are never closed,
He will destroy all evil foes,
Your ev'ry thought He always Knows,
And Keeps His Own with Angel Hosts. –CGP

Before time began God Knew your days and if you believe and obey Him, you will know eternal bliss! Nothing will happen in your future for which God has not provided if you follow Him. He will even help with your bad choices if you repent and return to Him. "And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm." As with any healed wound, there will always be a scar and the painful memory of it, but with time and care it will only be a reminder of our disobedience. The best resolution we can make is found in God's Word. "This Book of the Law (God's Word) shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." We may not always desire to obey God, but "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap Life Everlasting." What will you sow from this day forward? Will you reap your own doing or the Lord's Provision?

"O LORD, Thou hast Searched me, and Known me. Thou Knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, Thou Understandest my thought afar off. Thou Compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, Thou Knowest it altogether." Psalms 139:1-4 KJV
