

*“The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was Published Unto All People, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.” Esther 8:13 KJV

“The heavens declare the Glory of God; and the firmament sheweth His Handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their Voice is not heard. The Lord Gave The Word: great was the company of those that published it.” Hebrew, Greek, Aramaic, or other languages are not needed to understand God’s Word. To think so denies the power of God and the Holy Spirit’s ability to teach and guide the individual seeker whatever their tongue or reading capability. Wasn’t it God who first confused the tongues at Babel? Many say Hebrew is our Lord’s tongue. I beg to differ. One heaven and one firmament speak to all tongues at once; “there is NO speech or language where their Voice is not heard!” Their Voice is the Voice of God and He Speaks the language of thought. In what language do you think? The “more intelligent than thou” mindset of self-important scholars, priests and pastors destroys the confidence of less learned believers and causes them to think they must learn of men rather than of God the Holy Spirit, Himself! “The Anointing which ye have received of Him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same Anointing Teacheth you of ALL things, and is Truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in Him. The Spirit of Truth Is Come; He Will Guide you into all Truth.” The Holy Spirit Reveals Truth to your soul and Guides your daily walk through faith in His Word. Why don’t missionaries teach Hebrew instead of translating the Bible into other languages? God Speaks Truth to your heart in your mother tongue. He has “Published to ALL the people!” Yes, Scripture was first given to the Hebrews, but Paul wrote in Greek to the Gentile churches. If God meant His Word to be only understood in Hebrew, why did the Apostles write in Greek? I knew and loved God long before I knew Hebrew and I still know very little. You may feel more spiritual to know or use Hebrew, but it doesn’t make you holier. What makes you Holy is the Blood of Jesus Christ and His Work, as the Holy Spirit, Prompting obedience to Truth through faith; the GIFT of God which cometh by the Word of God! God’s Word is to “every generation,” no exceptions!

Our God will surely find the heart,
That seeks for Him a pace apart,
Will give that soul eternal Light,
And guide it in the Way that’s right! -CGP

God speaks fluent Swahili, Chinese, English, and etc., because He created them in the first place! No discredit given to the study of ancient languages and texts. God gave men and women down through the centuries the ability to understand and translate from Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic into other tongues or we would not have the KJV, La Reina, or the Asian and indigenous tribal language Scriptures to which many have dedicated lifetimes of linguistic work! It is ludicrous to think you can learn more from men than the Holy Spirit! He can teach you from God’s Word in your Mother tongue. Make sure you have the best translation in your Mother tongue. The King James Version was produced around 1611 by 40 scholars who were fluent in Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek under the permission of King James the First. God used the work of men like William Tyndale (burned at the stake), John Wycliffe (exhumed and burned), and others to produce translations used in the work. I believe it is God’s Word by faith to English speaking people. God speaks Truth to me through it, convincing me, “I am His and He is mine!” Is your faith based on men’s words or God’s Word?

“For after that in the Wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it Pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to Save them that believe.” 1 Corinthians 1:21 KJV
