

"The Righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the Righteous is Taken Away From The Evil To Come." Isaiah 57:1 KJV

For the wicked, death is the portal to the beginning of infinite finality, of eternal destruction with no return, recourse, or repair from its sentence. It marks the end of Mercy and the beginning of eternal torment! They will see God but once, only to hear their Judgment Sealed. "Depart from Me, ye workers of iniquity! I NEVER Knew you!" Iniquity is any, ANY, disobedience to God's Word. "All have sinned and come short, but if we confess our sins, He Is Faithful And Just To Forgive us our sins and to Cleanse us from ALL unrighteousness." Those who do it "their way" are unrepentant. Repentance is simply obedience; turning from your way to God's Way. "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way. Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God Hath Commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. Ye shall walk in all the Ways which the LORD your God Hath Commanded you, that ye may live. Such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD Shall Lead them forth with the workers of iniquity. The Redeemer Shall Come to Zion and unto them that turn from transgression." Stop and turn back to God! Those that kill believers do not realize that they are God's Instrument of delivering them from "the evil to come." God Will Visit Vengeance upon this planet with Unequaled Fury! He Will Catch Away The Faithful (repentant, not sinless) that remain before Pouring Out His "Cup of Wrath" upon evil men. The death of a saint is precious in the Eyes of the Lord. The millions murdered in the womb by evil men and consenting mothers will rise up in judgment against their murderers. Millions perish worldwide from engineered starvation so that the wicked elite may implement their evil plans. God Knows every cry and pitiful wail and silent scream of the little ones killed. He Will Have No Mercy on the wicked in the Day of their calamity. He "Will Mock when their fear cometh." God Will Send a "Great Tribulation such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be." For the saint, death is the Doorway to Eternal Bliss, the threshold of Everlasting Pleasure at the Right Hand of the Blessed Redeemer! No more pain, sorrow, or sin! Forever Liberated! They will witness the demise of Satan as he is bound and cast forever into the Lake of Fire. Death will be eternally swallowed up in Victorious Triumph. The wicked do not consider death a deliverance, but for every saint it is the end of sorrow. God Allows the death of the faithful at the hands of the wicked for a two-fold purpose; to deliver the saint and damn the wicked. His Purpose And Plan Are Perfect, without error or flaw and what may seem a calamity is but a liberation. Do not mourn the saint who has entered into the Hallowed Halls of Heaven. Do not wish their return to this vale of sorrow. Seek only to make your own "calling and election sure" so you may be forever reunited in Glory.

The saint that leaves this mortal shell,
Escapes the grasp of imps from hell,
No longer plagued by sorrow's swell,
They'll with their God forever dwell. -CGP

Mortal death is the final Deliverance of every saint that precedes the Lord's Return. Do not mourn their passing, but rather rejoice for their new found Joy And Bliss. This world is the best the wicked will ever see and the worst the saint will ever see. The only commonality between Heaven and Hell is they are eternal!

"Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 5:6-8 KJV
