

"And I Will Bring Again the captivity of My People of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I Will Plant Them Upon Their Land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I Have Given them,' Saith the LORD thy God." Amos 9:14-15 KJV

As God said, the desert has bloomed. Trees were planted, fields were harvested, and the land prospered and grew under the newly formed nation's watchful eye. God brought His people home to stay. Ishmael had long supplanted her, and to this day is trying to claim ownership of the property they stole. God granted Canaan to Israel as He promised Abraham, and while both Ishmael and Isaac can claim Abraham as their father, only one is the rightful heir according to the Promise. Israel has been replanted to move no more. Consider the position in which Israel finds herself; completely surrounded by those who work desperately to rid the earth of her, tiny Israel is feared and she prospers. Can this be anything but the Protective Hand of the Almighty? Those who wish her removed, foolishly strive against the Promise of The Omnipotent God. "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against His Anointed, saying, 'Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.' He That Sitteth in the Heavens Shall Laugh: the Lord Shall Have them in derision. Then Shall He Speak unto them in His Wrath, and Vex them in His Sore Displeasure." John the Apostle was given an insight into that Wrath. "And I beheld when he had opened the Sixth Seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, 'Fall on us, and hide us from the Face Of Him That Sitteth On The Throne, and from the Wrath of the Lamb: For the Great Day of His Wrath Is Come; and who shall be able to stand?" It will be interesting to continue watching as Israel's enemies try to destroy her. They're going to push until God has had enough, and then we'll just see if Allah is really god, or the creation of a mercenary's imagination.

Though Satan move with heavy tread,
And fill the souls of men with dread,
God's Wrath will surely find his head,
And ev'ry man twas by him led! –CGP

What God plants, stays planted until He moves it. I personally have no doubts as to the outcome, but some people are too foolish for their own good. Satan would like nothing better than to make just one of God's Promises void, but it will never happen. God Said He Would Bring Israel Back, And He Did. He Promised that they would leave no more, and they won't. He Promised the land would prosper, and it is. You want proof that God's Word is true? Pay attention. Think you can defy God? Tell you what, maybe, you can start by stopping the wind, or the rain, or the sunrise, or..... Get my point? God Said It; That Settles It, Forever; whether men like it or not!

"For ever, O LORD, Thy Word Is Settled In Heaven. Thy Faithfulness Is Unto all generations: Thou Hast Established the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day according to Thine Ordinances: for all are Thy Servants." Psalms 119:89-91 KJV
