

"For Where Your Treasure Is, there will your heart be also." Matthew 6:21 KJV

What is your treasure? On what or whom do you place the most value? For which you would give your life? We think we know until we become slave to addiction. It's not always drugs. Many times it begins as a temporary pleasure which soon becomes a monster of obsessive desire. All pet sins are addictions. "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not." If we look within ourselves, we find little strength to combat evil. It is like trying to find dinner at the land fill. It is only by filling our mind with the Grace, Love, and mercy of God that we find His Peace and Assurance: That we are indeed, "heirs according to the Promise!" Only then will our heart's treasure become celestial, superseding any bodily or earthly bond! If God is all you need, you'll need nothing else! If you look for God in everything, you'll see nothing else! So, I ask again, "What is your treasure?" "And [Jesus] said to them all, 'If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross DAILY, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.'" Is God worth all that you have?

What in life do you deem the best?
What do you value more than rest?
The heart's desire you can't conceal,
Your treasure does your heart reveal. –CGP

As you go through your day, ponder your priorities. Are they earthly or eternal? Petty or precious? Are your values sensual or spiritual? Do you weigh your decisions on the scales of eternity or on the desires of the earthy?

"For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant Grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the Glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." 2 Corinthians 4:15-18 KJV
