

"Therefore Be Ye Also Ready: for in such an hour AS YE THINK NOT the Son of man Cometh." Matthew 24:44 KJV

Did you expect Jesus to Return yesterday? How about the day before that? Or maybe you expect Him tomorrow? Its event probably didn't even cross the minds of most believers and surely not those of any unbelievers! If Jesus Returns as you read, might you be caught off guard? Would you be contemplating His Arrival and watching for Him? In other words, would Jesus' Return happen "in such an hour as ye think NOT?" I know the Catching Up of the believers will happen, because God's Word verifies it. "The Lord Himself SHALL Descend from Heaven with a Shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the Trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be CAUGHT UP TOGETHER with them In The Clouds, to meet the Lord In The Air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." The real question is: "Will you be left behind on earth at His Coming for the Church or will you be overjoyed?" Will you be ready to just leave, or will you be looking back at "just one more thing?" What earthly thing could possibly hold more value to you than seeing Jesus? You might venture, "The salvation of a lost loved one." Get busy telling them the Gospel! They have the same decision and consequences you had and your responsibility is to tell them! Has your life born witness to the Truth or have you been a "closet believer?" Will your life match your message? However, regardless of your actions, as it was with you, the decision is still totally up to them. They can't blame anyone for Hell, but themselves! The rest is up to God. "The Lord is...not willing that any should perish." God knew every decision of every soul from "before the world began," because He is The Discerner of the "thoughts AND intents of the heart!" He will not Return until every soul whom He Foreknew calls, because every one of them was been given to the Son by the Father! "Of them which Thou Gavest Me have I Lost None... I Give unto them Eternal Life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My Hand." Any sorrow you might feel in Eternity for a condemned soul in hell will disappear, for "God shall Wipe away ALL TEARS from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." The most important thing is to make sure you, those with whom you come in contact, and those you hold dear are ready and waiting "for YE KNOW NOT what hour your Lord Doth Come." His Return will be unexpected, because when He Comes you will not be thinking about it. You must watch and wait. You know He's Coming soon, but the day and hour are a mystery that only Father knows. When Jesus left over 2000 years ago, He said, "A little while, and ye shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see Me." The Apostle Paul confirmed it; "For yet a little while, and He that shall Come will Come, and will not tarry." How often, as a child, did your parents say, "In a little while."? It means one thing: "Wait: It's coming!"

Don't give up; just wait and watch,
Christ will come when you think not,
It's not a maybe, guess, or think,
For it shall happen in a blink! –CGP

Are you excited? Are you brimming with anticipation? It might be today! An old saint was once asked, "Do you think Jesus is coming today?" He replied, "Nope!" "How about tomorrow?" Again, he replied, "Nope!" He was asked, "Why not?" He replied, "Cuz de Bible sez He a comin' when ah ain't a thinkin bout it!" Live each day as if Jesus Died yesterday, Rose today, and is Coming back in the morning!

"He which testifieth these things saith, 'Surely I come quickly.' Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus."
Revelation 22:20 KJV
