

"Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny Him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate." Titus 1:15-16 KJV

Reason and rhetoric are the standard of unbelievers; sleight-of-words used to mask their wicked behavior. You need look no further than lust tempting advertising. Unbelievers openly blasphemed the name of Jesus without the slightest twinge of conscience. Professing to be a believer, but continually engaging in sin, is taking God's Name "in vain." It's putting a Rolls Royce hood ornament on a go-cart! Unbelievers rationalize by saying things like, "That Christian does it!" "They measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise." Many self-proclaimed "pastors" openly blaspheme God's Word with words and conduct! They lead those who "will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts...heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the Truth, and shall be turned unto fables." Professional "pastors" would quit the instant it failed to pay. "Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward." Many seek a secular jobs or larger churches for more income, because they compete in an "achievers arena" instead of following a "conscious calling." Many "pastors" may seem Godly, but they manage the church instead of ministering to it; using worldly methods and business philosophy instead of just preaching the Word and letting God add "such as should be saved." Unbelievers only occupy church pews to work their way to heaven, appear religious, or salve their conscience. Many "Churches" have become social clubs where music is more important than Truth. Beware! Satan was heaven's musician. He hasn't lost his ability to manipulate with music. He goes to church more than believers! The Rapture will go unnoticed by many congregations. If deeds deny Truth, it matters not what you call yourself. You are "unto every good work reprobate" You can't understand what must be accepted by faith; "with the mind of Christ," that is, God's Word in thought directing implicit obedience! Do your deeds deny your faith? There is no "mostly saved" or "I hope I'm saved." If you're saved, you KNOW you are: If you're not, you only THINK you are! I "thought" I was saved for years until God gave me faith. Now, I KNOW it better than my name! Don't let sin control your deeds. "to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness." If you don't KNOW you're saved, repent. God "commandeth all men every where to repent." Repentance is obeying God's Word, because you believe it.

Some may profess to be God's child,
But their cold heart is growing wild,
Their deeds reveal their heart within,
For they are still enslaved to sin. ~CGP

Do your deeds reveal you a "professor" or a "doer" of God's Word?

"For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect Law of Liberty (God's Word), and continueth therein (obeys it), he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed." James 1:23-25 KJV
