

"We have also A More Sure Word Of Prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the Day Dawn, and the Day Star (Christ) arise in your hearts:" 2Peter 1:19 KJV

True prophecy is the declaration of Divine will and purpose given us in God's Written Word. It can be past, present, or future. In the Holy Scriptures we have all three. It is the definitive essence of absolute! It is never wrong. Many have dedicated lifetimes to proving its error only to end up in the hell-fire they so adamantly rejected! Others devote a lifetime of studying its depths and in the end proclaim they have only scratched its surface. Even the beloved disciple, John, wrote, "And there are also many other Things which Jesus Did, the Which, if They should be written Every One, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written!" The depths of Divine Wisdom can never be sounded, but its proclamation is the quintessential liberation of human soul and spirit! "O the depth of the Riches both of the Wisdom and Knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His Judgments, and His Ways past finding out!" Solomon wrote, "Then I beheld all the Work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it." There is no equal to Its Precision or Power. It Goes beyond the abilities of temporal sense and intellect into the Infinite Realm of the Eternal Omnipresent Jehovah. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the Things Which God Hath Prepared for them that love Him." It may be pursued for eternity, at once fully satisfying and yet leaving an everlasting thirst for another taste! Once tasted, It Forever Commands the heart of the repentant. "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to Face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He Shall Appear, we shall be like Him (Jesus); for we shall see Him as He Is." We can now, through prayer and meditation, catch fleeting glimpses of Glory and sense the gentle wisps of the breezes of Holy caresses. The Soft Whispers of the "Still Small Voice of Truth" will Guide us into "all Truth" when we quiet our souls and "be still and know that [He is] God." We can bask in the Glow of Holiness through trusting faithful obedience to God's Word. We can "know" that we are "Accepted in the Beloved" as surely as we know our own face for we "have received the Spirit of Adoption, whereby we cry, 'Abba, Father.' The Spirit Itself Beareth Witness with our spirit, that we are the Children of God." It is a sureness that can never be removed by any human effort or action! "And I give unto them Eternal Life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My Hand. My Father, Which Gave them Me, Is Greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of My Father's Hand. I And My Father Are One." Like a baby that knows its mother's voice, it is a sureness that only the Redeemed can know!

Blessed Assurance! Jesus is mine!
O, what a foretaste of Glory Divine!
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His Love. –Fanny J. Crosby

God's Word is more sure than the Rock of Gibraltar or the orbit of the stars in their galaxies! It will sustain and keep you when the very ground on which you stand crumbles!
