

"A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked." Psalms 37:16 KJV

Wealth escalates wickedness. There is more to squander, more to protect, more to fail, and more to maintain. The more you have the more it will be coveted. If I have just what I need right now without the worries of supply, maintenance, and security, I will use it today and it will not be left over for another to covet.

"The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but He casteth away the substance of the wicked."

Enough food and proper clothing are all that is required to maintain the body. "Having food and raiment, therewith be content. Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about." Wealth will not satisfy your soul for you'll always want more. The wealthy are not satisfied with what they have, but constantly work for increase, because wealth is their security and they can always imagine a scenario where they need more or another possession to gain. "Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied." If I delight to follow God's Word and trust Him implicitly for every need, I have the wealth of the galaxies for provision and the Guardian of Eternity for my Protector! "Delight thyself also in the LORD and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart." He needs no wealth for His Word is His wealth. He creates from nothing and is self-subsisting. He needs no food, sleep, nor shelter for He inhabits the universe. "He is before all things and by Him all things consist! Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?" If I have Christ, I need nothing! He will provide daily for the sustenance I need. Tomorrow may never come and if it does, He guarantees my daily need. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and ALL THESE THINGS shall be ADDED UNTO YOU!" If I walk with the KING, what need I bring? "I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness." The KING'S servants fare better than the wealthiest citizen and His children "shall not want!" I'd rather have one promise of God than the wealth of nations! Material wealth cannot cheat death, cannot buy everlasting life nor forgiveness, and is worthless beyond the grave! "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" What good is gold to a dead man? How valuable is your soul? The body of every man returns to dust, so why do we care for it more than our eternal soul?

My Father's House is bountiful,
His Blessed Love is wonderful,
His table overflows with meat,
To partake, I only need one seat! ~CGP

If I diligently seek God through faith, I will enjoy Heaven's bounty on earth! Peace, joy, abundant life, sufficient grace, and "all these things. For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly." Completely trust God, you'll have all you need for today!

"Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be still praising Thee. Selah. Blessed is the man whose strength is in Thee; in whose heart are the ways of [Thy Courts]. Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools. They go from strength to strength; every one of them in Zion appeareth before God." Psalms 84:4-7 KJV
