

“Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than Godly edifying (mind and character improving instruction) which is in faith: so do.” 1 Timothy 1:4 KJV

According to some, the Mayan calendar predicted the end of time on Friday 12/21/2012; including polar shifts, the dawning of the “Age of Aquarius,” unprecedented solar flares, galactic planetary alignment, an asteroid/comet strike, and etc. The furor stemmed from an interpretation of the calendar indicating a new age began December 21, 2012. When it didn’t happen, suddenly other “ancient texts” appeared explaining why, but not one journalist or scientist deferred to God’s Word! Apparently you have to be a human sacrificing cult! While I do believe we are truly in the end of time, it is preposterous to think God is not in control of the time He created, and that some murderous devil worshipping culture somehow held the key to its end! There are a myriad of end time cataclysm prognosticators who either use some ancient writing, or, believe it or not, science! Some even use a “Bible Code” which is based on the perfect mathematical precision of the Bible text which is most strange, considering most claim it to be fables. Why is it so mathematically perfect? There is only one Book of Divine Truth and it clearly states, “of that Day and Hour KNOWETH NO MAN, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.” If man has predicted it, you can rest assured it is wrong! I anticipated December 21st with extreme curiosity. What would all these doomsday “seers” do when their predictions dissolved into obscurity? Jesus said, “In such A TIME AS YE THINK NOT, the Son of man cometh.” I don’t pretend to know the day or hour, but I do know what signs to look for and I am watching! The fall of the first snowflake may be unpredictable, but falling leaves and cold temperatures secure its proximity! Our instructions are; “Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.” Are you watching and waiting? If not, I suggest you start! If you don’t think Christ’s return is today, is it the “time ye think not?”

The fables of men know no bounds,
They run in fear of smallest sound,
But those whose life, in Christ is found,
Will aye in Joyful peace abound! ~CGP

End time predictions of the world are the mere waves of the storm that surround us, but if we stay focused on “the Author and Finisher of our faith,” we may securely walk where others may not! It is not the “sea” that holds us up those who walk “in the light,” but the omnipotent Word of our Immutable Saviour!

“Keep yourselves in the Love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto Eternal Life. And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His Glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.” Jude 1:21-25 KJV
